

You have questions? We have answers!

Am I under any obligation after filling out an application?

Absolutely not, your application is used when you decide to travel to assist us in locating the best match for your assignment and when you decide to travel. The application will remain on file for 1 year.

How do I become a RN Recruit Traveler and is there a fee?

Never a fee, you can become a traveler by simply filling out an application packet, along with a skills checklist in the area in which you are applying. We will assist you in finding the perfect assignment to meet your needs.

How long after applying and choosing an assignment does it usually take?

Normally, we start recruiting to fill positions as they become available. This could be two to three months prior to start date, so it's best to start as soon as possible to make sure you are able to meet your needs. Just from experience as a seasoned traveler, I would suggest a minimum of 3 weeks prior to you wanting to begin to travel.

What are the minimum requirements in becoming a nurse traveler?

To become a Nurse traveler varies from each facility. Most require at least 12 months of consecutive experience in an acute care facility and a graduate of an accredited professional program in the United States.

How will I be paid?

RN Recruit pays weekly on Friday. You can choose to have this direct deposited or mailed to your home. Pay rates vary from each assignment depending on the facility and location. Typical pay rates for an RN range from $30.00 to $38.00 hourly. Many facilities offer a completion, extension or quick start bonus.

What type of benefits do I get? We pay your travel expense. Depending on the assignment some may choose to fly while others choose to drive to the assignment. We pay up to $600 for mileage if you drive to your assignment.

If you are not already licensed in the state in which you have accepted an assignment, RN Recruit, Inc. will reimburse you up to $150 for your license once your assignment is complete.

Private housing is available, or you can choose to receive a housing stipend. If you choose our housing we will do all the leg work in getting you the housing. If you choose to take the housing stipend, you are responsible for finding your own housing and RN Recruit, Inc. pays you a weekly stipend amount.

We also offer Blue Cross Blue Shield health insurance.

How long are the assignments, and how do I choose where to go? This can vary with each travel assignment. We have assignments as short as 4 weeks, but typical assignments are 8 to 13 weeks. Sometimes it is possible to individualize the length of an assignment to meet your needs. Once your application is processed and skills reviewed, you're assigned recruiter will assist you in specializing what you are looking for? Whether it is Pay or Location that motivates you we have positions waiting for you! If we don't have your specific position in the location of choice we will contact the facility in that area and to present your credentials and search for an available assignment. There is a whole spectrum of assignments available nationwide! You specify the area you are looking for and we will find it- from rural facilities, to Trauma Centers and everything in between.

Can I travel with a friend? Absolutely, in fact that is what is so wonderful about travel nursing. You can have the comfort of being able to travel with your friends, spouse or even another healthcare professional. This will allow you to share the experiences of a lifetime and see the sights of your new surroundings on your days off. Don't forget your camera! Travel nursing is what you make it!!

Once I choose my assignment, what is next? Your recruiter will advise you on your precise assignment, however; the process is usually goes like this.

- Nurse submits application/skills checklist.
- Nurse Recruiter contacts nurse.
- Perfect assignment found
- Profile submitted to facility
- Interviewed by facility (this varies with each contract)
- Both Parties Agree
- Contract signed
- Nurse begins assignment

What happens once my assignment has ended? Once you have satisfied your contract requirements you can choose to travel to another assignment and continuing to travel or stay home and possibly return to traveling at another date. Regardless of what you desire, we will be here to help you with your travel needs.

How do I get to my assignments? It is best to drive or have your vehicle transported to your assignment if possible; this will allow you to see the sights of your new surroundings on your days off.

Can I bring my pet? This is becoming more common, however most places require a security deposit. Be sure to ask a head of time.

What if RN Recruit does not have an assignment where I want to travel? Even though we staff at many facilities across the United States, if we do not have your hospital, you can provide us the name of the facility and contact person and we will do the rest.

We hope this section has been helpful. Travel nursing is one of the most exciting careers in the healthcare industry. We staff facilities across the United States that are experiencing a shortage. There are jobs everywhere; some enjoy beaches in CA, Hawaii, Florida and even the Carolina's. Other recruits enjoy the mountains for skiing. Maybe you would just like to go somewhere you always wanted to go...Now is your chance, its here waiting for you!
